Good afternoon,

I am responding On behalf of the defendant Miles Hudson on, the civil matter in regard to his Dodge Charger. He has received the summons and complaint for civil penalties due to him not complying for the noise control. The car has had some issues and will not start on its own. We took it to the Dodge dealership and had it diagnosed. The part that they have to fix on the car is on back order and I have also put the car in a different shop to fix the electric panel. This has become costly and time constraints. The defendant Miles Hudson does not have the car in his possession, and I am working on getting the car fixed and up to compliant. We have had issues with the car and it's kind of hard to get everything done in a timely manner. This letter is just informing and responding to you that I am working on it and he is no longer driving the car or having it in his possession.

Let me know if you need anything.
