

The City of Seattle, PLAINTIFF

VS

HUDSON, MILES O, DEFENDANTDOB: 05-20-2003*Electronic Home Monitoring OrderCASE: 4240000362, 4240002153BA NUMBER: 2024009276

The court ordered you to serve Electronic Home Monitoring.

Warning to Defendant:

If you violate any of the terms of electronic home monitoring, you may serve confinement for the violation, and it may affect your eligibility for electronic home monitoring in the future. You may also be charged with the crime of escape in the third degree, which has a maximum penalty of five years.

You must call Sentinel Monitoring Agency at (206) 223-9681

<input type="checkbox"/>	Immediately following court today or,
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	RELEASE to Sentinel after posting bail ($50,000)
<input type="checkbox"/>	By ____ (date).

While on Electronic Home Monitoring:

You must remain in your residence 24 hours a day, unless the court permits you to leave for a specific purpose, as approved by the court, below. You may leave your residence for:

☒ Work ☒ School ☒ Defer to Sentinel Representative to approve daily living activities

Other authorized program: Court authorizes collection of food delivery services, 2 times a day for 10 min at a time. MUST PROVIDE RECIEPTS.

As follows:

While you are away from your residence, you must remain on electronic home monitoring.
October 11, 2024

Judge Seth Niesen☐ Copy given to defendant in court.☐ Copy mailed to defendant via USPS.☐ Copy emailed to defendant☒ Defense attorney to give a copy to client.Dated: October 11, 2024Court Staff: AA